ALFRED PEATS WALL PAPER.

Our new stock of Wall Papers consists of over 2,000 designs and colorings priced from 3c. a roll up. No matter what grade. We guarantee all goods perfect. All goods marked in plain figures 50 per cent cheaper than same quality can be purchased elsewhere. This week we will sell PARLOR, HALL AND DINING-ROOM PAPERS from 12 1-2c. to 25c. that would cost you elsewhere from 25c. to 65c. BEAUTIFUL TAPESTRY, LEATHER, RELIEF, and other high-grade papers, many of them imported, will be offered from 50c. to $1.00 a roll. A LARGE VARIETY OF DELFT PATTERNS FROM 15c. TO 35c. SEE our BED-ROOM AND KITCHEN PAPERS, 3c., 5c., 7c., 10c., 12 1-2c. and up. Visit the retail department of the largest wall-paper concern in the world before you buy.

WRIGHT'S BOOKKEEPING SIMPLIFIED
A COMPLETE Encyclopedia OF BUSINESS METHODS.

Pioneering Exposition of Expert Accounting.

New Edition, JUST OUT. 25 new pages of useful information, in print for the first and only time. For simplicity, perfect arrangement, and fund of business ideas, it has no equal. Acknowledged by competent judges on two continents.

A PERFECT SELF INSTRUCTOR. Teachers say it is too good because students do not need their services. It contains a full set of books, showing every entry from opening to final closing, and adjusting partner's interest. TRIAL BALANCE and BALANCE SHEET explained. Every duty of a first-class bookkeeper made perfectly plain. How to change single entry into double entry. How to reconstruct books on the stock company plan and conduct them accordingly. How to keep books for who-lease, retail manufacturing, commission and importing business. Knowledge that gives perfect self-confidence in one's ability to keep any book.

314 Pages, handsomely bound, Price $3.00. Sent postage paid to any address, immediately on receipt of price.

NEW TOPICS. Fraud—How Detected—How Prevented—There is only one way to assure honest bookkeeping, and this book explains it. Contingent Liability—How a firm may be hopelessly involved, although seemingly rich, because of contingent liability. Erasing—Old fog says never make erasures; we say always make them when the occasion arises. Stand Alone—Hints to young bookkeepers and clerks generally that will save them painful experience. Up-End Down—The effect of this chapter will be noticed in every office where this book has been read. Three Days of Grace—Why abolished. This is equivalent to a fault that will hereafter be corrected. Theory Must Precede Practice—A reason why "Dr." "Cr." &c., must not be omitted. The Best Way to Subtract—Strange to say, but few can subtract correctly. Two Pen Pictures—Old fog and progressive book-keeper. Brief and interesting.

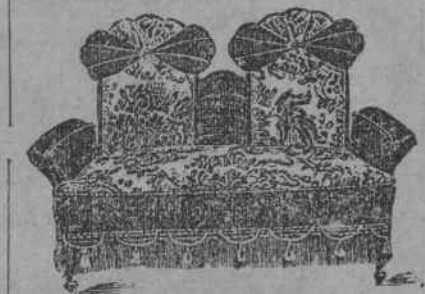

A FEW MORE COPIES RETAILED AT WHOLESALE PRICE. This book is worth three times the price to everybody connected with office work, but as a means of bringing this edition more prominently into notice, we will allow 50 per cent discount to each of the first 500 purchasers who order within 30 days. This is equivalent to buying a sovereign for a cent. We believe it will be the means of selling 5,000 more to the merchants' friends, who will thus have opportunity to examine the book, which speaks for itself. Those who awake to their own interest will not miss this chance of getting for $1.50 a book that contains more and better technical knowledge on the science of accounting, also more valuable information on BUSINESS METHODS generally, than any similar book that costs from 50 to $1.00, but does not fill the bill. A 40-page descriptive circular FREE.
